

Photographs, Poems, Pencils and Pluff Mud

March 26 – 28, 2010 North Inlet-Winyah Bay, Georgetown, SC

An educator workshop designed to capture the science of the salt marsh through photography, literature and the visual arts.

North Inlet Winyah Bay, Georgetown, SC

Kevin Kurtz, author of A Day in the Salt Marsh, joins nature photographer, Karen Beshears, visual arts teacher, Marie Nichols, and marine educators from COSEE SE and North Inlet Winyah Bay NERR for a workshop designed to capture the science of the salt marsh using art and literature.

What Will You Experience and Learn?

- Learn about salt marsh ecosystems from regional scientists in the classroom and field.
- Develop artistic skills in photography, literature and visual arts to capture elements of the salt marsh.
- Combine artistic and science information to use in your classroom!

COST: Registration: $65 (includes lodging, food, supplies)

Who Can Apply? Open to ANY NC, SC, GA formal/informal educator

Deadline to Apply: February 8, 2010

Participants notified: March 1, 2010

Application and $65 registration is due no later than February 8th to:

Karen Beshears, Director, SEWEE Association,
P.O. Box 1131 Mount Pleasant, SC 29465

Checks or Credit Cards Accepted. If paying by credit card, please include the credit card form provided. If paying by check please make it out to SEWEE Association.

Questions? Contact EV Bell at elizabeth.vernon@scseagrant.org

